MindPlus Online

https://nzcge.nz/online/

of unique students – 100
Type of provider – Program, non-profit
Primary distance modality – Combination of synchronous and asynchronous

Background

MindPlus Online, which first began in the early 2000s, is a specialist, part-time programme for gifted and neurodivergent learners operated by the Neurodiversity in Education Project.

To view MindPlus Online's full profile, visit:
https://flanz.org.nz/dl-pulse/profiles/mindplus-online/

Activity 2024

During the 2024 school year there were a total of 100 unique students enrolled in MindPlus Online. The highest level of enrolment at any given time was 84 students, and the lowest level of enrolment at any time was 81 students. There was a total of 9 Māori students enrolled.

The programming was provided by 2 unique teachers, representing 1 full-time teaching equivalent.