Southern Regional Health School

https://www.srhs.school.nz/

of unique students – 578
Type of provider – School, public, special institution
Primary distance modality – Asynchronous

Background

The Southern Health School was established in 2000 as a 'special school.' It only serves students who have an (1) active treatment programme for their health condition or (2) be engaged in a health funded mental health programme with an active therapeutic programme. The Southern Health School serves students who live in the South Island, Stewart Island or the Chathams.

To view Southern Health School's full profile, visit:
https://flanz.org.nz/dl-pulse/profiles/shs/

Activity 2024

According to the Education Counts website, the school enrolment was described as so.

Level	Total
Year 8	1
Year 9	2
Year 10	2
Year 11	3
Year 12	5
Year 13+	3
Total	16

These figures included 8 students of Māori descent enrolled.

In terms of the actual nature of enrolment, the Southern Health School reported that the 2024 school year the school enrolled a total of 578 unique students. Their lowest weekly enrolment was 247 unique students, which occurred during the first week of the school year. Their highest weekly enrolment was 399 unique students.

The Southern Health School indicated that 533 of those 578 unique students were dual enrolled in their home school. That home school was a brick-and-mortar public school for 528 students and a brick-and-mortar private school for 5 students, but the home school was listed as Te Kura for 16 students (i.e., 16 students were full-time distance learning students). Additionally, there were 266 students enrolled in Te Kura on a supplemental basis (i.e., enrolled in one or more courses, but not on a full-time basis). Finally, there were 45 unique students who were not dual enrolled in their home school, but who were directly enrolled in the Southern Health School.

To summarise:

total enrolment: 578 unique students

1. lowest weekly enrolment: 247 unique students
2. highest weekly enrolment: 399 unique students

enrolment based on programming

3. dual enrolled in a home school: 533 unique students
    1. brick-and-mortar home public school: 528 unique students
    2. brick-and-mortar home private school: 5 unique students
    3. Te Kura as the home school: 16 students
4. dual enrolled in Te Kura: 266 unique students
5. directly enrolled in the Southern Health School: 45 unique students